

Voyager Academy McKinney-Vento Dispute Resolution Policy

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (also referred to as the McKinney-Vento Act) acknowledges that disputes may arise between Public School Units (PSUs), students and their parents, or unaccompanied youth, regarding eligibility, school selection, or enrollment decisions. The McKinney-Vento Act includes dispute resolution among the required duties of the PSU homeless liaison. Below is the McKinney-Vento Dispute Resolution Policy and Process for Voyager Academy.

PSUs should bear in mind that disputes related to eligibility, school selection, or enrollment should be initiated at the request of the parent, legal guardian, or unaccompanied youth and not at the request or convenience of the PSU. Additionally, issues related to the definition of homelessness, the responsibilities of the PSU to serve homeless children and youth, and/or the explicit rights of homeless children and youth are addressed in the McKinney-Vento Act. Disputes related to eligibility, school selection, or enrollment shall be resolved within the parameters of the federal McKinney-Vento Act.

The following procedures are specified in the McKinney-Vento Act:

Enrollment: If a dispute arises over eligibility, school selection, or enrollment, the child shall be immediately admitted to the school in which enrollment is sought, pending resolution of the dispute. In the case of an unaccompanied youth, the homeless liaison shall ensure that the youth is immediately enrolled in the school in which enrollment is sought, pending resolution of the dispute.

Written Explanation: The PSU must provide a written explanation of the eligibility, school selection, or enrollment decision to the parent, legal guardian, or in the case of an unaccompanied youth, to the unaccompanied youth. (The written explanation must include a description of the parent's, legal guardian's, or unaccompanied youth's right to appeal the decision.)

Homeless Liaison: The designated PSU homeless liaison is assigned to carry out the dispute resolution process in an expeditious manner, such that the local process is completed in no more than 15-school business days or 30-calendar days, whichever is less.

Responsibility: The PSU homeless liaison is responsible to inform the parent, legal guardian, or the unaccompanied youth of the dispute resolution process.

Background Information:

If the School, homeless liaison, and/or parent/guardian/caregiver/unaccompanied youth disagree on McKinney-Vento eligibility, school selection, or enrollment, a process is in place to appeal the decision. Every state must establish procedures to promptly resolve disputes regarding the educational placement of students in housing transition.

Under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act, a student experiencing housing transition has the right to attend either the school of origin, if this is in the student's best interest, or to attend the local attendance area school. School of origin is defined as the school that the child or youth attended when permanently housed or the school in which the child or youth was last enrolled. Local attendance area school is defined as any public school that non-homeless students who live in the attendance area in which the child or youth is actually living are eligible to attend.

PSU homeless liaisons must ensure that the same access to the dispute resolution process is provided to unaccompanied youth.

INITIATION OF THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

When a dispute occurs regarding eligibility, school selection, or enrollment the parent, legal guardian, or unaccompanied youth shall be informed in writing of the PSU's decision including reasons for the decision within one (1) school-business day in a language and format understandable to the parent, legal guardian or unaccompanied youth of their right to appeal the decision made by the charter school and be provided the following:

1. Written contact information for the PSU homeless liaison and State Coordinator, with a brief description of their roles.
2. A simple form that parent/guardian/caregiver/unaccompanied youth can complete and turn in to the school to initiate the dispute process (the school should copy the form and return the copy to the parent/guardian/caregiver/unaccompanied youth for their records when it is submitted.)
3. A written step-by-step description of how to dispute the PSU's decision.
4. Written notice of the right to enroll immediately in the school of choice pending resolution of the dispute.
5. Written notice of the right to appeal to the State Coordinator for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth if the district-level resolution is not satisfactory.
6. Written timelines for resolving district- and state-level appeals.
7. A copy of the NC Dispute Resolution Policy (hard copy or online link).
