

Non-Title IX Prohibition Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Bullying And Complaint Process

No student or School employee shall be subjected to bullying or harassing behavior by School employees or students as defined and set forth below. The School takes seriously all complaints of discrimination, harassment, and bullying. The process provided in this policy is designed for those individuals who believe that they may have been discriminated against unlawfully, bullied, or harassed in violation of the School's Non-Title IX Prohibition Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Bullying Policy. This includes violations under Title VI. Individuals who have witnessed or have reliable information that another person has been subject to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or bullying also should report such violations in the manner provided in this policy. Reports may be made anonymously. This policy does not apply where an individual seeks to assert allegations regarding or related to the identification, evaluation, educational placement, or free appropriate public education of a student under Section 504 or the IDEA, such allegations may be raised through the procedures governing such matter. This Policy also does not apply to Title IX complaints, behavior falling within Title IX or Title VII complaints. Please refer to the corresponding School's policies for Title IX and VII matters.

Definitions:

As used in this policy, "bullying or harassing behavior" is any pattern of gestures or written, electronic, or verbal communications, or any physical act or any threatening communication, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, or on a school bus, and that:

1. Places a student or school employee in actual and reasonable fear of harm to his or her person or damage to his or her property; or
2. Creates or is certain to create a hostile environment by substantially interfering with or impairing a student's educational performance, opportunities, or benefits. For purposes of this section, "hostile environment" means that the victim subjectively views the conduct as bullying or harassing behavior and the conduct is objectively severe or pervasive enough that a reasonable person would agree that it is bullying or harassing behavior.

"Cyber-bullying and cyber-harassment" are any words, actions, or conduct that meet the definitions of bullying or harassing behavior described in this policy, and are conveyed via email, text message, Internet message boards, interactions on social media, or other electronic media. Any conduct or communication that occurs outside of school does not fall under the jurisdiction of the school unless it impacts the school environment; which is solely determined by the school.

Bullying or harassing behavior includes, but is not limited to, acts reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived differentiating characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, socioeconomic status, academic status, gender identity, physical appearance, sexual orientation, or mental, physical, developmental, or sensory disability, or by association with a person who has or is perceived to have one or more of these characteristics. No student or school employee shall be subjected to bullying or harassing behavior by school employees or students.

No person shall engage in any act of reprisal or retaliation against a victim, witness, or a person with reliable information about an act of bullying or harassing behavior.

A school employee who has witnessed or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior shall report the incident to the appropriate school official.

A student or volunteer who has witnessed or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior should report the incident to the appropriate school official.

Reporting

Mandatory Reporting by School Employee: Any employee or volunteer who witnessed or who has reliable information or reason to believe that an individual may have been discriminated against, harassed, or bullied in violation of this policy must report the offense immediately to their supervisor or building principal. An employee who does not promptly report possible discrimination, harassment, or bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Anonymous Reporting by Students or Parents/Guardian: Reports under this policy may be made anonymously, but formal disciplinary action may not be taken solely on the basis of an anonymous report.

Reports by Students and/or Parents/Guardian: Any individual who believes they have been subject to conduct or communication in violation of this policy are strongly encouraged to file a complaint in writing to any of the following:

- a. the school counselor, teacher, principal, or assistant principal of the School for any claim of discrimination, harassment or bullying, including Title VI complaints;
- b. the Title IX coordinator for claims of sex discrimination or sexual harassment;
- c. the Section 504 coordinator or the ADA coordinator for claims of discrimination on the basis of a disability; or
- d. any member of the Board if the alleged perpetrator is the Head of School.

Investigation of Reports

Reports of discrimination, harassment, or bullying under this policy will be investigated sufficiently to determine whether further action under this policy or otherwise is necessary, and school officials shall take such action as appropriate under the circumstances. The School will follow its Code of Conduct for all investigations and discipline for behavior falling under this policy.

Time Period for Filing a Complaint

A complaint should be filed as soon as possible but no later than 30 days after disclosure or discovery of the facts giving rise to the complaint. Complaints submitted after the 30-day period may be investigated at the discretion of school officials and is not required. However, individuals should recognize that delays in reporting may significantly impair the ability of school officials to investigate and respond to such complaints.
